In 2016—with the help of dedicated house sponsors like SunTrust, donors and volunteers—Atlanta Habitat built 50 new homes and completed more than two dozen critical repair projects. The nonprofit homebuilder made an annual $6 million economic investment in Atlanta last year.

About Atlanta Habitat for Humanity

Atlanta Habitat for Humanity transforms communities through neighborhood revitalization, education, innovative development and partnerships. As one of the largest affiliates of Habitat for Humanity International, Atlanta Habitat has built more than 1,400 houses—impacting the lives of more than 5,500 family members and 168 neighborhoods—since 1983. In addition to constructing affordable, green, quality homes, the nonprofit homebuilder also rehabs existing structures and performs critical repairs for qualifying homeowners. Houses are sold to first-time homebuyers with zero-interest mortgages in Atlanta and South Fulton County. Visit www.atlantahabitat.org.
